Foreword

This is a Child protection service providers' directory which lists the various child protection service providers' addresses, contacts and services rendered, for effective case management and referral of child protection cases in Kiambu County. The directory is a key tool that enlists effective coordination, referral, building synergies, capacity and networking of children's service providers in Kiambu County which will be useful in sustainable management of child protection cases.

Whilst there are many child protection service providers, in this document emphasis is skewed towards those service providers who interact with child protection matters more often such as sub county children offices, police stations, courts, Charitable children institutions((CCIs), Hospitals, specific Non-Governmental Organizations(NGOs), Community based Organizations(CBOs), Faith based organizations(FBOs) among others.

Given that Child Protection (CP) is multisectoral, diverse and at times overlapping, this situation requires a standardized and harmonized approach to ensure the wellbeing of all children in Kiambu County is efficiently safeguarded. It is therefore envisaged that this service providers' Directory will be used to direct and standardize the way state and non-state service providers adhere to effective case management and referral guidelines (2019). Stakeholders are encouraged to make use of this directory and create linkages at community and other levels.

The directory will be updated after a period of three years to cater for the existing and new service providers.

Message From The County Commissioner

I wish to recognize and appreciate the critical services offered by the Directorate of children services together with various stakeholders offering child protection services in Kiambu County.

Children form a significant segment of our population; all children are vulnerable to abuse and exploitation and therefore require constant attention, supervision and provision of services that ensure that their indelible rights and general welfare are well safeguarded. A number of partners both state and non-state are playing this key role in our county and there is need to ensure that their location and services they offer are known and easily accessible to those who may need to refer or transfer cases.

I am delighted that this service providers' directory has been developed as it will create a platform for achieving this purpose. In addition, the document will promote utilization of services offered by the various organizations to children they already support and those that will be knocking their doors to seek services every now and then.

I therefore call upon all stakeholders to make use of this document as it will aid in fast tracking case management of child protection cases that need attention and services not available in a given organization and locality.

Acknowledgements

The development of Kiambu child protection service providers' directory was a concerted process undertaken by a dedicated team from the Directorate of children services- Kiambu County with several key stakeholders and partners. The document was a product of several meetings, consultations and inputs all of which individually and collectively enriched it.

Much appreciation to the members of the technical team from the Directorate of children services- Kiambu County who worked to ensure the document was completed within the agreed timeframe.

Finally, our special gratitude goes to World Vision-USAID Tumikia Mtoto (Kiambu) for their financial and technical support that has guaranteed successful accomplishment of the exercise.

Definition of Key Terms

- 1. Child Abuse: Child abuse is any intentional harm or mistreatment of a child under 18 years old by another person. It can be physical, sexual, verbal or emotional. Child abuse can cause serious and lasting damage to the child's health, development, and well-being. Some of the signs of child abuse are unexplained injuries, changes in behavior, depression, anxiety, nightmares, and self-harm.
- 2. Child Neglect: Child neglect is a form of child abuse that occurs when a parent or caregiver fails to provide the basic needs and care for a child, such as food, shelter, clothing, education, medical attention, or emotional support. Child neglect can have serious and long-lasting effects on a child's physical, mental, and social development. Some of the signs of child neglect are poor hygiene, malnutrition, frequent absences from school, lack of supervision, and low self-esteem.
- 3. Child Protection: Child protection is the safeguarding of children from all forms of violence, exploitation, abuse and neglect. It involves identifying signs of potential harm, responding to allegations or suspicions of abuse, providing support and services to protect children and holding those who have harmed them accountable. The primary goal of child protection is to ensure that all children are safe and free from harm or danger. Child protection also works to prevent future harm by creating policies and systems that identify and respond to risks before they lead to harm.
- 4. Do No harm: The principle of do no harm in child protection means that any intervention or program that aims to help children should not cause or increase the risk of harm to them, such as violence, abuse, or exploitation.
- 5. Foster Care: This is the placement of a child with a person who is not the child's parent, relative or guardian and who is willing to undertake the care and maintenance of that child. Foster care is meant to be a temporary arrangement until the child can return to their family, be adopted, or become independent
- 6. Foster Child: A foster child is a child who is placed in the care of another family or person, usually by the state, because their biological or legal parents are unable or unwilling to take care of them.
- 7. Inua Jamii Cash Transfer Programme: The Government of Kenya's flagship National social security Safety Net Program under the Ministry Of Labour & Social Protection for the beneficiaries of: Cash Transfer for Orphans and Vulnerable Children (CT-OVC); Older Persons Cash Transfer (OPCT); Persons with Severe Disabilities Cash Transfer (PWSD-CT); and, Hunger Safety Net Programme (HSNP)
- 8. Intentional: Being intentional in child protection means that you are aware of the potential risks and harms that children may face, and that you take deliberate and proactive steps to prevent or reduce them. It also means that you are responsive and accountable to the needs and rights of children, and that you involve them in the decisions that affect them according to evolving capacities. Being intentional in child protection requires you to have a clear vision, purpose, and plan for your work with children, and to follow the best practices and standards in the field.

- 9. Intersex Child: Means a child with a congenital condition in which the biological sex characteristics cannot be exclusively categorised in the common binary of female or male due to inherent and mixed anatomical, hormonal, gonadal or chromosomal patterns, which could be apparent prior to, at birth, in childhood, puberty or adulthood.
- 10. Positive Parenting: This is a parenting practice that focuses on building a positive relationship with their child/ children and encouraging their strengths and abilities. It is based on respect, empathy, and encouragement and aims to foster a positive relationship between parents and children, helping them develop their full potential.
- 11. Service Provider: A service provider (SP) is an organization that engages in any service geared towards the protection of child rights and welfare such as rescue, child care program, legal aid, therapy, rehabilitation etc.

Preface

Welcome to Kiambu County Child protection service providers directory which profiles key CP stakeholders with special emphasis on their geographical locations, contacts, services and target clientele. In addition the directory provides a simplified referral pathways which attempt to guide how child protection case management referrals can be efficiently accomplished across various stakeholders for the best interests of the Kiambu child.

The directory has come as a result of a series of engagements organized by DCS Kiambu, entailing actors in child protection-based programming. The directory contains key providers, referral pathways and actual geographical location of the program sites among others.

This directory is meant to be utilized by actors and prospective partners within and outside the county for the purpose of improving the quality of service delivery.

We would like to urge all actors and interested parties to read the information and also mainstream the use of the same in their daily child protection activities and funding priorities.

Directorate of Children Services Kiambu is committed to the full implementation and maximum utilization of this directory and will continue providing the necessary support and guidance throughout the processes that lead to sustainable case management, referral of child protection cases and largely contribute to National Care Reform Strategy.

We owe this to the children of Kiambu, Kenya.
